Bhagvad Gita Sanatan Dharma Scholarship

For Middle and High school students

The Bhagvad Gita Sanatan Dharma Scholarship aims to promote independent research, focusing on the rational foundation and the teachings of the Bhagvad Gita.

The Bhagvad Gita is a well-known Hindu spiritual text that is universally accepted not just for its sanctity, but also as a guide for day-to-day life i.e. "a handbook of life." Messages from Bhagvad Gita such as: "Inaction in action and action in inaction," are within the reach of common seeker of all ages.

The scholarship offers multiple learning opportunities based on age and education level. Eligibility for the scholarship is extended to any student who is currently enrolled in the United States education system at the middle school and high school levels.

AVAILABLE SCHOLARSHIPS

- High School Level – 3 scholarships, $201 each
- Middle School Level – 3 scholarships, $151 each

HOW DOES SCHOLARSHIP WORK?

- Specific Gita Shlokas are given on the website for participants as per age group (download Gita Shlokas using link to audio files).
- They are required to memorize Shlokas and understand the meaning
- There will be a Video conference/interview with short listed candidates on diction and meaning of Shlokas
- Winners will be announced via email / website

TO APPLY

- Fill out and submit scholarship application available on hinduscholarship.org
- One paragraph summary of your community service work from the current academic year.
- A transcript (official or unofficial) or report card
- A recorded audio of your assigned shloka recitation in mp3 format (memorize and recite from memory.)
- Write the meaning of 'each individual' shloka separately and relate it to your own personal experience. If you are unable to relate the meaning to your personal life, you can ask someone else and use their example. It must be a real-life example.
